

NOUVEL HAY MAGAZINE

SANS FRONTIÈRES

Université d'Etat de Californie ,
Northridge , Samedi 29 Mars 2014

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, NORTHRIDGE

ARMENIAN GENOCIDE SURVIVORS AND THE WOVEN ART
A CONFERENCE ORGANIZED BY

THE ARMENIAN STUDIES PROGRAM

AND

COSPONSORED BY

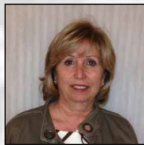

THE ARMENIAN RUGS SOCIETY

THE UNITED ARMENIAN COUNCIL OF LOS ANGELES

SATURDAY, MARCH 29, 2014, 1:00-5:00 PM

Oviatt Library, the Jack and Florence Ferman Presentation Room

Hasmig Baran: Introduction of Speakers

Gevork Nazaryan: "Armenian Weaving Centers in the Ottoman Empire on the Eve of the Genocide."

Harold Bedoukian: "Armenian Orphans and Orphanages: Their Contribution to the Carpet Weaving World."

Vahram Shemmassian: "The Industries at the Armenian Refugee Camp of Port Said, Egypt, 1915-1919."

Hratch Kozibeyokian: "The Revival of an Ancient People and Their Crafts in Post-World War I Aleppo, Syria."

Susan Lind-Sinianian: "Stitching to Survive: Handcrafts of Armenian Widows and Orphans, 1896-1930."

Bared Maronian: "The Newly-Discovered Hajin Orphan Rug."

18111 Nordhoff Street, Northridge, CA 91330

Parking Structure B3 at Darby and Prairie streets (info. booth for parking tickets on Prairie)

Contact: Prof. Vahram Shemmassian, (818) 677-3456; vahram.shemmassian@csun.edu