(please print) (parent/guardian must sign if under 18~~This summer (June/July 2014), Lark Music Society will host its first ever Vocal Camp. Held on the grounds of Camp Arev, Lark will enjoy a two-week excursion into nature - the first week geared towards young vocalists, ages 10-14, and the second week for those 18 years and older. Singers have the exciting opportunity to share in a tremendous musical experience, reveling in choral and communal recreation in a beautiful setting.

An immersive musical training program in the serenity of Camp Arev is certain to be an enriching artistic experience and memorable event for the Lark family. In addition to music classes and choral work, each participant can expect to enjoy extracurricular activities, lectures, recitals and lots of fun and games. Each week will be highlighted with solo, ensemble and choral performances given by the participants on the last day of camp

La compagnie musicale et chorale Lark organise son camp d'été consacré au chant . Les inscriptions sont maintenant ouvertes.
