la bio de Marten Yorgantz :

Marten Yorgantz (born a June 24, in Istanbul) is a popular French-Armenian singer and composer. He is recognized as the most popular Armenian singer in Europe.

He recorded 24 albums in different languages, mostly in Armenian, Italian and French. Among his well-known hits are "Chkuytik", "Hayi Achker", "Hayeren Ergenk", "Ayp, Pen, Kim", "Ay Maral Maral", "Partir pour ne plus revenir" and others. In 1980 he opened a restaurant at Saint Georges[disambiguation needed], in the heart of Paris, where he regularly sings.

In 1976, he opened a second restaurant called Cappadocia in the Armenian populated Alfortville district outside of Paris.

After the Spitak earthquake he gave about 100 concerts for the Armenian children.
