📍 European Parliament,
Room: JAN 6Q2
📅 28 February 2018
🕒 13h00-15h00

Organised by AGBU Europe and EuFoA, and hosted by Frank Engel MEP, Chairman of the Friends of Nagorno-Karabakh group in the European Parliament.

the people of Nagorno-Karabakh appealed to the Soviet authorities to exercise their right to unification with Armenia. This movement was triggered by the political uncertainty of the crumbling Soviet Union, which Armenia, Azerbaijan and Nagorno-Karabakh were all part of. In 1988 and in the following years, peaceful Armenian initiatives were met with violent repression by Azerbaijani authorities. By 1992, the dispute had escalated into an all-out war.

Thirty years later, what has been done to de-escalate and resolve this conflict? European Friends of Armenia (EuFoA) and AGBU
