

NOUVEL HAY MAGAZINE

SANS FRONTIÈRES

3 avril 2018 6-9 pm ALMA (Armenian Museum of America) Taner Akçam present : Talaat Pasha's telegrams : Orders to kill

Clark University : ALMA : Taner Akçam présente : "les télégrammes de Talaat Pacha : ordres de massacrer" : le génocide des Arméniens par le gouvernement "Jeune Turc appuyé par "l'Organisation Spéciale" (Teshkilat y Mahsusa en turc) composée de criminels sortis de prison

Clark University Strassler Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies
The Armenian Museum of America and the National Association for Armenian Studies and Research

Invite you to a lecture and book signing to celebrate a new book by

Taner Akçam, Ph.D.
Killing Orders: Talaat Pasha's Telegrams and the Armenian Genocide

Clark University historian Taner Akçam will present exciting new information that further uncovers the Turkish government's denial strategy. He will introduce some new evidence regarding the Killing Orders – that prove the Ottoman government's central role in planning the extermination of the Armenian population.

Lecture and reception open and free to the public
April 3, 2018 | 6 – 9 pm
Admission Free! Donations appreciated.

Armenian Museum of America
65 Main Street, Watertown, MA 02472

For more information,
<http://www2.clarku.edu/departments/holocaust/events/publiclectures.cfm/>

Please RSVP to <http://ow.ly/y0830j2B9>