The talk by Dr. Abel Manoukian seeks to pay tribute to the Swiss people's unprecedented solidarity with the Armenians in their most trying times. The author explains how it came to be that the Swiss people took a stand alongside their Armenian brethren and sisters in the Christian faith. The period under consideration ranges from the time of the first American Protestant missionaries in the region to the assumption and continuation of their work by Swiss missionaries.

Dr. Abel H. Manoukian, born in Beirut, Lebanon, studied Theology at the University of Vienna, receiving his Masters of Theology in 1981 and Doctorate degree in 1989. General secretary of the Evangelical Armenian Apostolic Church in Austria, America, Canada and Switzerland for more than 22 years.
Author of numerous books and articles in Western and Eastern Armenian, German, English and French.
Active in Armenian social and cultural projects.
