Capacity Crowd Greets Diaspora Minister

GLENDALE - "If any Armenian-individual, political party, organization-is ready to serve the Republic of Armenia and the Armenian Diaspora, we are going to work with them." This clear and loud message was delivered by Mkhitar Hayrapetyan, Armenia's Diaspora Minister on July 30 during a community town hall meeting at the Pacific Community Center, where a capacity crowd turned out to greet the young minister on his first official visit to Los Angeles since being appointed to that position.
