through old routes to new roots

In a one-of-its-kind festival, listen to talks on ancestral roots, meet post-revolution leaders from Armenia, enjoy art and music - all with a glass of beer from Armenia.

Established in 2005, the USC Institute of Armenian Studies supports multidisciplinary scholarship to re-define, explore and study the complex issues that make up the contemporary Armenian experience - from post-Genocide to the developing Republic of Armenia to the evolving Diaspora. The Institute encourages research, publications and public service, and promotes links among the global academic and Armenian communities.
