ANCA Rising Leaders Travel to Washington DC for 3-Days of Career Development and Civic Engagement

— ANCA, AYF and Georgetown ASA Already Gearing Up for 2020 Program

WASHINGTON, DC - Over 30 students from top universities and high schools across the U.S. traveled to the nation's capital to take part in the Armenian National Committee of America's (ANCA) inaugural Rising Leaders Program - three days of career development and civic engagement designed to inspire public service and community engagement.

The ANCA's Tereza Yerimyan led the March 10th to 12th initiative, organized in conjunction with the Armenian Youth Federation (AYF) Eastern and Western Regions and the Georgetown University Armenian Students Association (Georgetown ASA), and made possible in large part through a generous contribution by the Ararat Foundation Shahinian Educational Fund.
