It summarizes the annual activities of the ARPA Institute. As you may agree, our efforts have been multipronged and, in some cases quite effective in Education, Science, Technology, Health or Economy in Armenia. We would love to get your feedback regarding any or all of the ARPA projects. We would also like to request your cooperation and association with the ARPA Institute if any of our projects are in your field of specialty and/or if you would like to help technically or financially for our team to accomplish much more. As you may know, there is so much to do in Armenia that any/all help will be very much appreciated and....
