“Gate to Heaven “à Berlin

Happening Now in Berlin! Our team including film director Jivan Avetisyan, Executive Producer Adrineh Mirzayan, and Independent Consultant Hasmik Avetisyan are attending the European Film Market. This is a great opportunity for the team to pitch our new film projects Revival and Black List to Producers and Sales Agents.

Jivan's continued dedication to filmmaking and his ambitious drive to advance his career in the cinema world has made him a perfect candidate for the Berlinale Talent. Jivan was selected to participate in the Berlinale Talent due to his artistic vision of his new film project Revival.

At the same time, the team met with fantastic distributors and international sales agents who showed great interest in our Gate to Heaven film.
