

2 mille milliards de “Covid-19 stimulus bill” (plan de relance) aux USA

- Complaints from some Republicans that the unemployment provisions were too generous held up a Senate vote on the stimulus package.
- Closed schools in the U.S. are talking about not reopening until the fall.
- France says it has issued 100,000 fines to people who broke social-distancing edicts.
- Get the latest updates here, plus maps and full coverage
- France : 1200 deaths

What’s in the $2 trillion stimulus package

The deal hammered out overnight in Washington for about $2 trillion in federal aid to help the U.S. ride out the pandemic is expected to pass quickly in both houses of Congress — though there was some last-minute squabbling on Wednesday — and get President Trump’s signature soon after that.

New York Times