In commemoration of the 105th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide, we dip back into our archives to present a memorable lecture by Raymond Kévorkian following the publication of his masterwork *The Armenian Genocide: A Complete History*.

Kévorkian gave this presentation, "The Armenian Genocide: Writing the "Complete History," at the NAASR Center in Belmont, MA, on March 14, 2012, speaking in Western Armenian with translation of his presentation by Khatchig Mouradian.

Many other NAASR lectures by a who's who of scholars examining all aspects of the Armenian Genocide can be found on our YouTube channel. We remain committed to presenting the best available scholarship on the Armenian Genocide as a way of honoring those who perished, those who survived, and those who continue to work for justice.
