Vidéos des programmes récents de NAASR

We continue our presentation of videos of recent programs with the March 5, 2020, panel discussion "Bilingualism: Challenges and Benefits of Learning and Living in Multiple Worlds," which took place at Harvard University with the participation of Dr. Lisa Gulesserian (Harvard University), Dr. Vartan Matiossian (Armenian Prelacy of the Eastern United States), Dr. María Luisa Parra-Velasco (Harvard University), and moderated by Dr. Anna Ohanyan (Stonehill College).

The program was co-sponsored by the National Association for Armenian Studies and Research (NAASR) / Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian Lecture Series on Contemporary Armenian Issues, Harvard Armenian Student Association, and St. Stephen's Armenian Elementary School.

The program included showing segments from the St. Stephen's video documentary "Armenian Bilingualism in America: Preserving Language & Identity," which can be viewed here: <https://youtu.be/a04TOB-Su2Q>.

There was great interest in this program and the important subject it addressed, and we hope to continue the discussion in future programs.
