The photograph shows a group of African American students in a classroom, likely from the early 20th century. The students are seated at desks, and the classroom appears to be a typical school setting of that era.

During the Great Migration, thousands of African American people moved from the South to the North in search of better economic opportunities and to escape racial violence. This movement had a profound impact on the African American community in the North, leading to the formation of new churches, schools, and social organizations. The NAACP played a significant role in the struggle for civil rights during this period.

Let's explore the impact of the Great Migration on the African American community in the North. We will look at the economic, social, and cultural changes that took place during this period.
