

Rescapés & sauvés après le génocide , à lire dans

Rescued & Saved: Armenian Genocide Survivors at Aleppo Reception Home

Valantine Hakob was one of hundreds of liberated Armenians who found refuge at the Aleppo Rescue Home in the aftermath of the Armenian Genocide. In this special report for the Armenian Weekly, scholar Edita Gzoyan recounts some of these survivor stories and the international campaigns that aided in their rehabilitation.