ARMENIAN WEEK IN THE CARIBBEAN

Cultural Events 2022

Welcome our Speakers

Aram Suren Hamparian

The Armenian Lobby: What's Next?

Presentation and Roundtable Discussion

As ANCA Executive Director, Hamparian serves as the organization's national point-person to the Administration, United States Congress, the media, and the Washington, DC foreign policy community. In cooperation with Eastern and Western U.S. regional offices, more than 60 local chapters, dozens of coalition partners, hundreds of community affiliates, and thousands of grassroots activists, he works on a broad range of legislative, policy, research, political, campaign, media, coalition, and community-related concerns. Hamparian has testified before Congress, lectured at the National Defense University, the Foreign Service Institute, and USAID, been quoted by The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, Associated Press, Reuters, and has appeared on CNN.

Ani Hovannisian

2021 Primetime Emmy Nominee "The Hidden Map"

Ani Hovannisian's recently completed feature documentary, The Hidden Map, is currently being considered for three 2021 Primetime Emmy Awards! The Hidden Map journeys into the hidden past of Turkey and dares to uncover the buried truth of exiled genocide survivors in their lost ancestral homeland. A chance encounter with a Scottish explorer leads to a joint odyssey revealing sacred relics, silenced voices, fearless resilience and the hidden map!

The Hidden Map debuted nationwide on NBC LX with multiple broadcasts on the weekend of April 24, 2021 coinciding with President Biden's official recognition of the Armenian Genocide. Overwhelming audience response and critical acclaim prompted several encore presentations in May and screenings at many domestic and international film festivals!

Among the Primetime Emmy Awards The Hidden Map and Hovannisian are being considered for is the distinguished Exceptional Merit in Documentary Filmmaking. AHC is excited to welcome Ani Hovannisian to present The Hidden Map as part of the cultural offerings of Armenian Heritage Week in the Caribbean!
